reception to the North Atlantic Squa-

It is working diligently for the time for preparation for the reception to the squadron and banquet at Old Point is arranged for and now efforts are being made at something in the line of entertainment at Norfolk.

The Entertainment Committee met yesterday with the Finance Committee cils of a sum, perhaps $1,500, to be expended in a pyrotechnical display.

This is intended not only as a feature in honor to the squadron, but also as an attraction of the fair week, calculated to draw thousands of strangers to Norfolk.

mittee are, it is understood, a unit in favor of making some such appropriation, providing such action on the part of the Councils is legal. A difference of opinion on this subject exists among the members of the Finance Committee.
